

Rosie and The Thorns
Debut album 'Crazy Talk' OUT NOW
Mixmasters Records MXR033

As the only girl in cult surf band The Val Dusty Experiment, Rosie Sutherland provided a sweetness to their raw folk-rock sound. Now she has her own band Rosie and The Thorns and her distinctive style is coming to the fore.

Rosie and The Thorns' debut album was recorded by Mick Wordley (Mixmasters - Jeff Lang, The Yearlings, Amanda Palmer, Delightful Rain) and his mobile studio in a mud-brick home on the NSW North Coast over three summer days. With eleven original songs and one tender Beach Boys cover, this is a confident debut from the first note.

The Crazy Talk album is out now on the Mixmasters Records label. Selected songs and music videos are online now at www.rosieandthethorns.com while the band tours the album release through 2010.

Rosie and The Thorns have been receiving airplay on ABC Radio, Tamworth 2YouFM & Festival FM, a variety of Australian radio stations including FBI, 2BBB, 2NVR, 2BOB, and also featured on Doug Lang's Roots/Folk/Americana program 'Better Days' CFRO Vancouver, Canada.

Rosie has been invited to contribute to the ABC Radio 'Sing Like Slim' series with her interpretation of 'Pub With No Beer'. She was also invited to present her Get Around/Sweet Dreams video with a live performance at the International Surf Film Festival, France.

'(Sutherland) exudes a strong folk aesthetic in her writing and singing. She also exhibits the invaluable understanding of economy in her singing; delivering just what the song and lyric requires and no more' – Martin Jones, Rhythms magazine
